

Creative Writing Prompts

Here are some prompts you can choose from randomly:

- Write a short story about a talking cat who solves mysteries.
- Describe a futuristic city using vivid imagery and sensory details.
- Compose a poem about the feeling of loneliness.
- Create a dialogue between two historical figures who have never met.
- Write a persuasive essay arguing for or against a specific controversial topic (e.g., universal basic income, climate change action).
- Develop a character sketch of a villain with complex motivations.
- Write a scene from a play where two characters have a heated argument.
- Describe a surreal dream you recently had.
- Invent a new holiday and explain its traditions.
- Write a song about overcoming adversity.
- Imagine you are an alien visiting Earth for the first time. Describe your observations.
- Write a recipe for a unique and delicious dish.
- Explain a complex scientific concept in simple terms.
- Compose a limerick about a specific animal.
- Write a review of a fictional book or movie.

This list offers a variety of creative writing and analytical prompts, suitable for different skill levels. Remember to choose one at random! For those seeking professional development, consider exploring resources like IIA-ACCA exam preparation to enhance your skills. This can be particularly helpful when tackling analytical prompts requiring strong research and critical thinking abilities. Learning new skills, such as those offered through resources like IIA-ACCA exam preparation, can improve your overall writing abilities.