

CAMPUS PRAYER WALK

Chapel: for students to see and experience the heart of Jesus, for speakers to honestly and lovingly speak God's truth, for the students to have open ears, hearts, and minds to the word of God, for worship to be glorifying to God and draw people near to Christ.

Math and science: for students to see God as creator and see him evident in big and small ways as they understand how God organized the world to work in different scientific areas of study. For professors to inspire and encourage their students in scientific fields.

Wilson: for community to be built among the men in the dorm, for the men to grow spiritually and be hungry to know the Lord, for Sam for the strength and endurance to lead with the addition of their son this year, for the RA's to support their floor members well.

Ohio: for Melissa to lead the Ohio girls with love while raising her kids, for Sofi to adjust to living in Ohio and helping care for the girls, for the RA's to love their floor members well, that the girls would build community and establish wonderful Christ centered friendships.

Volkman: for the upperclassmen to deepen their friendships with one another, for Hannah to have the strength to care for her building while parenting young children, for the students to be wise in the decisions they make currently and for the future.

HAWAC: for the professors to encourage and equip students well, for students to deepen friendships and encourage one another in studio and classes, for the library to be a place where students feel comfortable to learn and ask questions and grow in their knowledge.

Lindner Tower: for professors to lead their students to greater knowledge of Christ and the fields they are teaching, for the departments that moved to have a smooth start to the year, for the new RISE floor to be a safe and fun space for people to grow in community.

Thompson: for the choir to be a witness for Christ on tours and on campus, for students to grow closer to Christ as they worship, for the Christian ministries, worship, and music students to learn about and experience God in new ways in their classes.

Administration building: for wisdom for the administration and staff in the way they lead and the decisions they have to make for the school, for strength to lead the campus and to be witnesses for Christ on and off campus.

Campus Commons: for conversations to be uplifting and new friendships to be built at meals, for the kitchen equipment in the caf to continue to work well, for res life and RISE staff to care well for students and have encouraging conversations in their offices.

Plant operations/Campus Safety: for campus safety the energy, discernment, and ability to keep the campus safe, for plant operations to have patience, endurance, and resources to fix things that break as the year goes on and keep us running smoothly.

Creekside: for Ambria to get all the equipment and classrooms set up, for all the nursing students to do well in their exams and certifications to be well equipped to care for patients, for the professors to continue to equip the next generation of nurses.

Baseball and Softball fields: for safety for the players on the field, for community to be built among the teams, for all the teams to grow closer to Christ and be witnesses to opposing teams, for coaches to discern how to lead their athletes well.

Dawson Field: for the teams safety during practices and games with few injuries, wisdom for coaches as they lead their teams, for community to be built among each team, and Christ to be made known and honored among players and coaches.

Fitness center: for wisdom, patience, and grace among the coaching staff with their teams, for the teams to be lights for Christ, for positive interactions among fans from the home and opposing teams, for community to be built among each team in their locker rooms.

Barton house: wisdom in where to find and market to future students, for more students to come in that will shape the world when they leave, and for the staff to be great first interactions that students will want to come to Judson.

University Center: for the departments that moved buildings to adjust to the new space, for the staff to be patient and helpful as they assist students with forms and questions, for student success to help students do well academically this year.